Before you read this, I'm, taking full advantage of free speech rights. Don't read it if don't want to hear an honest, albeit robust opinion.

I have to agree with Rose. Since no one from the city reads these or responds to you guys, I might as well say what the majority on this chain — even certain city employees listed — have told me that they think:

The only two balls that dangle in front of Ryu are named Sarah and Dusseault. Whenever Ryu has agreed with us in meetings, he's been verbally castrated by the Chief with, "Now that is NOT what David really means. THIS is what he really means..." Then more excuses and reasons for delay fly out. Never solutions. They don't have any – even after over a year and a half of knowing the biggest threat to public safety in our neighborhoods. Unbelievably, I credit the bombastic, self-promotional buffoon that preceded them with the where-with-all to shut down residential areas on weekends, especially holidays, due to the traffic and fire danger involved.

Ryu says his #1 goal is public safety, while his office sends out back-patting e-propaganda on all accomplishments EXCEPT public safety. Trust me, I dig to find one word about it.

Worst yet, they don't even have the basics in place, like a digital marketing management plan. Especially knowing geo-targeting, bloggers and websites are righteously growing crowds here by leaps and bounds. They predicate their posts based on the errant signage Ryu (Sarah) refuse to take down. It's no different than saying hey, "This way to FREE parking at Disneyland." And the city receives no revenue. Brilliant.

You'll hear, "We'll provide more enforcement." But that has been a disaster. It's about never being able to put enough bandages on a bleeding wound. Just hang out up on Dirt Mulholland or the Vista for awhile. It was so nuts, Ryu had to be police-escorted out of there on a holiday. Wish I could have the privilege of a police-escort. Others can pipe up for their areas.

Ryu and Barbie, er ah, the Chief, need to get with the program before, as Heather states, someone dies. I'm not sure if that will even matter. Our former unconscionable C4 leader while smiling placatingly told TJ "TJ, people die all the time."

Like most things, someone has got to die first before a stop sign at a dangerous intersection goes up. We've had three fires since the illegal non-CEQA-reviewed balding of the Vista — it's only matter of time before our homes go up in flames.

Hey media people what are you waiting for? Someone to die before this insanity is exposed??

Yesterday someone asked if they could use my wifi to call Uber because they were lost and their phone was running out of battery life. This was followed by a man asking if I had a visitor parking pass he could use.

After reading the laws on the City books regarding public safety at special events and at public venues which would apply to the Hollywood sign as it constitutes a daily popular public venue. It appears that the city is not adhering to the very same policing policies of "traffic control services, traffic management plan and enforcement, traffic diversion and control, direction maintenance of vehicles and pedestrians" among other requirements they demand of other venues or special events.

Read public welfare statute 41.20 D 5 in the website public.resource.org.inc

Chapter IV Public Welfare

<https://law.resource.org/pub/us/code/city/ca/LosAngeles/Municipal/chapter04.pdf>

Read also the public welfare statutes 41.20.1 A 9&10 c

"Including, but not limited to the Staples Center, Dodger Stadium, the Coliseum, Sports Arena, Hollywood Bowl, Kodak Theatre and Greek Theatre,
You can add Hollywood Sign to the included but not limited to

So many laws being broken.

Read 41.18. regarding sidewalk loitering and pedestrians blocking traffic in the middle of the street or right of passage on sidewalks and streets

Stopping in a red zone, smoking in a fire hazard area, trespassing on private and public property, trespassing in restricted park areas the list is long

The City needs to take accountability for our traffic problem here due to the sign and provide a traffic management plan for the areas of Beachwood and Lake Hollywood If they are short on revenue maybe some help should come from the Chamber of Commerce who promotes the sign at every opportunity and the Hollywood Sign Trust who is the only entity who really profits from its commercial use and was initially formed to help offset the impact to surrounding neighborhoods with revenue from its licensing proceeds
